

What do I want to try immediately?	How do I think these changes would make a difference in my program?
What do I want to learn more about developmentally appropriate practices and using them with children?	What information do I want to share (with families, with co-workers, etc)?