What do I want to try immediately?

How do I think these changes would make a difference in my program?

What do I want to learn more about developmentally appropriate practices and using them with children?

What information do I want to share (with families, with co-workers, etc)?